

Cllr John Calway: Biography

Cllr John Calway has been involved in Local Government since 1983 sitting on Kingswood District Council, Avon County Council and more recently South Gloucestershire Council.

From 2003-2007 John was Deputy Leader of the Council and in May 2007 elected as Leader of South Gloucestershire Council.

John's responsibilities is leadership of the Council with regards to the democratic process, strategy and policy and promoting the well-being of the area. He is also responsible for delivery of the Corporate Plan, Community Strategy, vision and values, management performance, emergency planning and Government consultation.